

Collect your badge in advance and avoid the hustle on October 2nd!

Quick guide to collect and use your badge

Collect your badge as soon as you arrive at the Heydar Aliyev International Airport between September 24th and October 1st. Here, you will find self-service printing terminals located in Zones A and B of Terminal 1 as well as the Common Area of Terminal 2.

All you need to do is to present the official e-mail confirming your online registration for the 74th IAC with a unique barcode, either as a printed copy or on your mobile device. Once you've presented the e-mail, follow the instructions on the self-service terminal to print your registration badge.

You can also choose to collect your badge at the IAC Registration Centre that will be operational from September 22nd. Procedure to obtain your badge here is the same – present the official e-mail sent with a barcode confirming your registration for the Congress!

As this badge will be your green card to access the venue as well as for complimentary shuttle buses between your accommodation and the venue, you are kindly required to carry it on at the bus, venue entrance and on-site during the event.

How to get to the Baku Convention Complex

Once you obtain your badge, you will be able to use complimentary shuttle buses between your accommodation and the venue easily. Show your badge at the bus and hop on for your IAC 2023 experience!

You might as well want to use public transportation or a taxi to get to the Baku Convention Complex. While you can use "BakiKart" for buses and metro as a single payment card that can be purchased and topped up at terminals located at metro stations and bus stops, you may also opt for a taxi selecting one of many user-friendly applications, enabled by both local and international companies, at affordable prices.
